New town clerk revealed

SEATON Town Council have finally filled the vacancy for a town clerk, more than five months after the departure of previous clerk, Tony Le Riche. Stepping up to the new position, is Mike Neale who began his role as town clerk last Monday. Mr Neale, aged 54, lives in Colyton and has a background in financial services, where he previously spent 35 years working in banking in London.

A Devon man at heart, Mr Neale spent the first 21 years of his life in and around Tiverton, before moving to London for his city career and returning to Devon in 2011.

Mr Neale explained that his previous career experience has equipped him to manage people well and he hopes to pass on his experience to fellow members of the council.

He added: "I have been involved with delivering a large number of projects and have played an active role in committees and working groups to see a project through to the end, so I am looking forward to being involved in plans for Seaton's regeneration. "With experience of working across businesses with a range of different groups, it is important for me to build a relationship with other bodies and councils, particularly representatives from the district and county councils here in Devon. ■ Turn to page four

Town says farewell to PCSO Bolsover

SEATON will be saying goodbye to long serving PCSO Chris Bolsover, as he moves on to perform his duties in a different part of East Devon.

PCSO Bolsover has served the town for five years and will be moving to Sidmouth next week to begin work as a rural PCSO officer.

PCSO Samantha Slater, aged 22, has taken over the position as town PCSO officer for Seaton.

To celebrate the work of PCSO Bolsover and to welcome PCSO Slater, members of Seaton's Age UK Devon group held a surprise cream tea at Number One, with Seaton residents filling the hall for the occasion.

When PCSO Bolsover arrived he was greeted with a cheer and presented with a special woollen batoon and policeman teddy bear from the group who thanked him for his commitment to Seaton.

He said: "Thank you to you all. I have always loved coming to meet with the Age Concern group on a Wednesday and Thursday, who always greet me with a smile and a cup of tea.

"It has been really brilliant working for Seaton with both the young and elderly members of the community in particular.

"I am sad to be going and to be leaving the community behind but I am looking forward to a new challenge, working in the rural areas in Sidmouth."

PCSO Slater, who took up her new post five weeks ago, commented on her new role: "I am looking forward to working with the people of Seaton and will be on hand to support all members of the community.

"Please don't hesitate to contact me if you require any help or assistance."

Also in attendance at the event was town mayor, Cllr Gaynor Sedgwick, who said: "I am delighted to have been invited to come along to the celebrations this afternoon alongside the many volunteers and the knit and natter group.

"It has been great to join in with the celebrations in wishing PCSO Chris Bolsover all the very best as he moves on and to thank him for his tremendous work in the town."

Keith Somers is Seaton manager

SEATON Town have appointed Keith Somers as first team manager to replace Josh Stunell, who has stood down after four years in the job due to family commitments.

Somers, 47, managed Colyton for five seasons, taking them up into Devon and Exeter Division One and to the final of the Bill Slee Cup in his last year.

Having played youth and adult football for 30 years, Somers took a break for management last season and took the opportunity of watching a lot of local football.

He told Pulman's Sport: "I found it a bit frustrating and have been bitten by the bug again."

"Seaton approached me along with a number of other clubs but Seaton seemed the most attractive."

Asked how he viewed the Seaton job, Somers replied: "Exciting and challenging and hopefully very rewarding."

Village school is under threat

EDUCATION bosses have confirmed that a village primary school in the Axe Valley could close.

Falling pupil numbers at Musbury Primary School is the reason for the closure threat.

Anyone with an interest in the school is invited to a consultation event at the school on Monday, July 1st from 3pm-6pm.

The school has a physical capacity to take up to 82 pupils.

In November 2005 there were 43 pupils on roll, but today's number is down to 18.

A spokesperson for Devon County Council said: "This situation is not forecast to improve, with a number of children leaving at the end of Year 6 and a small intake for September.

"Delivering a full and balanced curriculum and the ability to fulfil age-related expectations is difficult with such a small and decreasing number of children.

"Devon County Council and the governing body's primary concern is the best interests of the children and that pupils receive the best possible education and learning opportunities.

If it is decided to continue the process, a public notice will be issued, followed by a six-week consultation after which a final decision will be made on Thursday, November 7th.

AXMINSTER

Festival returns

AXE Vale Festival bounced back in style after last year's washout and pulled in 10,000 or so visitors over the two days last weekend.

Festival chairman Tony Bengier said the showpiece had followed its traditional pattern with a tentative start on the Saturday, followed by a busy Sunday.

He said: We had many more visitors on the Sunday, but that is usually the trend."

He estimated the total number of visitors to about 10,000 and was reasonably pleased with the weather, saying: "I think we were lucky that the showers seemed to go around us.

"A little warmer and less windy would have been nice, though."

Mr Bengier also reported that the sparrowhawk which disappeared during a display on the Saturday had returned safely.

Axminster mayor Jeremy Walden was very enthusiastic and said: "I think it [the festival] is excellent. They have risen very well from last year.

"The festival is a credit to the town."

One year old Kenny has been with us for several months due to prolonged cat flu. He is now fine and ready for his forever home. He does however have a permanently drippy nose which is of no consequence and he keeps himself nice and clean

From the editor's chair Back in the festival groove

AFTER the great disappointment last year when our monsoon summer washed out the Axe Vale Festival, it was great to see the area's premier summer event bounce back with such success over the weekend.

The weather wasn't exactly kind with frequent showers on Saturday, but the organisers are still estimating that around 10,000 people attended the two-day festival. What started all those years ago as a modest garden festival is now one of the Devon's favourite country events, attracting customers from all over the county and further afield.

The festival was founded 19 years ago to raise funds for the running of Axminster's Flamingo Pool. Since then the pool has benefitted by an unbelievable £196,000 with a further £130,000 being raised for other worthy local causes.

Even last year when the festival had to be cancelled because it rained solidly for 36 hours before the gates were due to open, after an extremely wet April and May, the organisation still managed to give the Flamingo Pool £10,000, Axminster Heritage £12,000 and the Axminster Tourist Information Centre £4,000, as well as smaller donations totalling £2,870.

No one could have envisaged that the festival would have been such a financial success all those years ago.

Many of those involved in the first festival are still serving on the committee today and that is one of the strengths behind the event; they have it down to a fine art, slickly run and professionally presented.

The fact that so many traders now clamber for a stall - around 150 this year - is another indicator of the popularity of their success.

"Where Town Meets Country" is a much used cliché for country shows - but it's certainly true when describing the Axe Vale Festival.

♦ I've always considered Hawkchurch to be one of East Devon's friendliest villages so it was good to be among the 100-strong congregation at the parish church of St John The Baptist on Sunday evening for the service of thanksgiving for the restoration of the bell frame and tower.

It was a real village event involving all age groups, celebrating the raising of £40,000 (quite a feat in this day and age) to ensure the church bells ring out for many years to come.

COLYTON

School staff member arrested

A STAFF member of Colyton Grammar School has been arrested on suspicion of possessing indecent images of children taken from the internet.

Police confirmed that a 50-year-old man from Exmouth was arrested last Friday.

It has not been confirmed whether the man was a teacher or non-teaching member of staff at the top-ranking school but headteacher Paul Evans has emphasised that the allegations of indecent images do not relate to anyone in the school.

In a letter sent out last week, Mr Evans urged parents to ask their children not to speculate about the arrest and hoped they would not be distracted during exam time.

In a statement to Pulman's View, Mr Evans added: "A member of staff was arrested by the police on Friday morning and is currently the subject of a police investigation. The school obviously takes this development very seriously and is co-operating fully with the police investigation.

"I can reassure you that, as far as we are aware at this stage, the allegations do not relate in any way to the school or anyone in its community.

"As the member of staff involved has not yet been charged, I am unable to give their name. I can, however, confirm that the school is taking appropriate action in accordance with its internal procedures and arrangements are already in place to cover the member of staff's duties in school whilst appropriate investigations take place.

"As the matter is clearly currently under police investigation, the school is unable to provide further details or comments on this matter at this time.

"It would be helpful if you could encourage your children at the school not to speculate about this matter - in many years students are involved in important examinations and I would not wish them to be distracted."

SEATON

New town clerk is appointed

SEATON Town Council have finally filled the vacancy for a town clerk, more than five months after the departure of previous clerk, Tony Le Riche.

Stepping up to the new position, is Mike Neale who began his role as town clerk last Monday.

Mr Neale, aged 54, lives in Colyford and has a background in financial services, where he previously spent 35 years working in banking in London.

A Devon man at heart, Mr Neale spent the first 21 years of his life in and around Tiverton, before moving to London for his city career and returning to Devon in 2011.

Mr Neale explained that his previous career experience has equipped him to manage people well and he hopes to pass on his experience to fellow members of the council.

He added: "I have been involved with delivering a large number of projects and have played an active role in committees and working groups to see a project through to the end, so I am looking forward to being involved in plans for Seaton's regeneration.

"Seaton has so much potential and living locally to the town, I want to see it fulfil its potential ambitions and become a successful seaside town.

COLYTON

£300,000 lottery win for mum

A COLYTON mum is celebrating winning £300,000 on a National Lottery Scratchcard.

Carrie-Anne Targett, 37, bought the Super 7s Scratchcard - using a £3 win from a previous Scratchcard - at her local Premier Stores.

She has been a factory worker at CeramTec UK since leaving school and she and mum Pat Marks have been regularly buying a Scratchcard after their weekly shop at Tesco every Thursday for the last three years.

As well as her regular Scratchcards, Carrie-Anne enjoys regular Zumba sessions and never misses her weekly class. When she's not at her local leisure centre, the Zumba fanatic spends any spare minute going through her Zumba moves on the Wii Fit.

Carrie-Anne is mum to Joshua, 11, and said: "I had won £3 on the Scratchcard I bought at Tesco on Thursday and went to our local shop to buy another one with it. I went to my mum's and we were talking away on the sofa before I even scratched the card and realised I just needed a number 12 to win. I was just in total shock when it showed up. I didn't know what to do with myself.

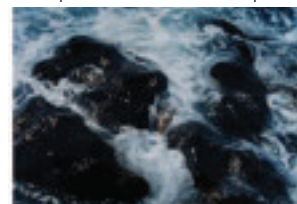

"I called my brother, Simon and went to him and his girlfriend Stacey's house, where I made the call to Camelot, who confirmed my win. I kept the card in a framed baby photo of Joshua, to keep it safe, until I could make the claim."

Carrie-Anne's mum regularly plays Lotto while Carrie-Anne usually sticks to Scratchcards. She has only ever had small wins before and already has plans to buy a car, as she has not owned one since 2006.

She said: "At the moment I borrow my dad Roy's Passat, but would love a car of my own. I bought an Auto Trader magazine, but just can't decide on anything. It's all overwhelming. I'm just looking for a run-around for me and Joshua."

Councillors want to avoid another 11-hour meeting

by Anders Larsson

anders@tindlenews.co.uk

DISTRICT councillors have started a campaign to prevent another marathon meeting of East Devon District Council's Development Management Committee which deals with all planning applications.

The meeting on Tuesday, June 11th included many controversial applications and lasted for a massive 11 hours.

Although not a member of the Development Management Committee, Axminster district councillor Douglas Hull attended and spoke at the meeting.

He told Putman's View: "No councillor or officer can stay fresh for that long and think clearly about planning."

Apart from the fact that the meeting lasted 11 hours, the load of applications meant that committee members' one-hour lunch break was delayed and cut down to 20 minutes.

Councillor Hull, who is the deputy leader of the Lib-Dem group on EDDC, said one option could be to split the district into two geographical areas and have one Development Management Committee for each area on separate dates.

Councillor Hull raised the issue during a Standards Committee meeting on Tuesday, June 18th - and he will also raise the issue when he and Lib Dem group leader Brenda Taylor (Exmouth Withycombe Raleigh Ward) meet with EDDC chief executive Mark Williams next month.

An EDDC spokesperson said: "The debate at Standards Committee was about public speaking rather than purely the length of meetings, though of course those two issues are linked."

"Instances such as the long Development Management Committee are fairly rare, but can come along if we have a particularly busy time on major applications or items on which many people wish to speak."

A high number of public speakers will inevitably lead to longer meetings, but councillors appear split as to whether it would be a good idea to impose restrictions.

The EDDC spokesperson said: "There were no formal recommendations about public speaking, other than resolving that officers work up some recommendations from the discussions - there were a number of suggestions but these need some thought into how they might work practically - and present these at a Special Standards meeting provisionally scheduled for Tuesday, July 23rd."

In a separate move, independent Ottery Rural councillor Claire Wright has asked another committee to get involved with the public speaking issue.

She said: "I have emailed the chairman of the Overview and Scrutiny Committee, councillor Tim Wood, asking for the issue of public speaking to be brought before the committee."

Referring to the debate at Standards Committee, she said: "The debate started with references made to the marathon planning committee meeting, which lasted 11 hours."

"I did not recognise the description of queues of people waiting to speak at most meetings - full council and scrutiny for example."

"It was different at planning committee meetings but this could be helped by effective chairmanship - after all planning committee members are not always concise and often repeat each other."

"I agreed that there had been more people wanting to speak at meetings recently, but these small number of people speaking or asking questions were not delaying meetings significantly."

"And it was hardly surprising given the levels of controversy recently, that more people did want to attend meetings and make statements or ask questions."

Seagull rescued

SEATON firemen were called into action in the town centre when a seagull became trapped.

The bird had become trapped in netting on top of the Lloyds TSB Bank building used to stop birds from nesting there.

A fireman went up an extending ladder to cut the bird free and bring it down in a box. An RSPCA officer was also present.

A spokesperson for the fire and rescue service said: "A seagull was trapped in netting on the third floor."

"The crew released the bird into the hands of the RSPCA officer."

New town clerk for Seaton

"All the building blocks are in place, and now there just needs to be the momentum and for everyone to play an active part to ensure Seaton can shine."

"I've had my city career and I see this as where I want to be for the remainder of my career."

"I am fully committed and want this position to work for me, my family and for the town."

"I am intent on qualifying and being proficient in my role as town clerk and look forward to the certification and training process."

Chairman of Seaton Town Council, Councillor Gaynor Sedgwick, added: "I am delighted to welcome Mike Neale, Clerk to the Council and Responsible Financial Officer to Seaton Town Council."

"Mike comes to us with a wealth of financial and personnel experience."

"He cares about Seaton and its community, and I am sure he will be a great asset to the council and to Seaton."

"I look forward to working with Mike in the coming months and years."

"May I take this opportunity to thank Seaton town councillors, particularly Councillor Sanham and office manager Marie Prideaux, for their tremendous support and hard work during the last few months when we have been without a clerk."

Frustration over Trinity broadband

IT IS nearly three years since a well attended meeting at the Peek Hall to see if residents had any interest in obtaining a better broadband service for Combyne-Rousdon and the wider area resulting in the setting of the Trinity Broadband group.

A survey revealed that the area in a very difficult situation being served by three exchanges and a number of cabinets that, in some cases, were several kilometres away. However they offered to provide a far from perfect solution for £225,000.

Trinity Broadband secretary Rod Boyce takes up the story. "Connecting Devon and Somerset have been awarded a large sum from BDUK and have contracted BT to provide superfast broadband to 91 per cent of the premises that find themselves in the area where the market has no commercial incentive to go.

"We were originally told that the first areas would be enjoying the new service in early 2013; that has now been changed to the end of 2013, so the scheme has already fallen behind.

"Areas to be upgraded will be announced on a rolling basis so it is possible that, in the worst case, we could have to wait until nearly 2016 to find out that we are to be in the unfortunate nine per cent that will receive no superfast broadband.

"We have been asking three simple questions of CDS: what areas are to get the new service, what speeds will they get and when will they get them.. CDS refused to answer these questions unless we signed a non-disclosure agreement. This would mean we would be legally liable if we passed on any information.

"In the meantime funds have been made available from Defra to support self help projects. We have submitted a bid on the advice of Defra who have assured us that they will seek the information from CDS that they refuse to give us.

"We feel extremely frustrated, in that after three years, we have achieved no improvement in our broadband. Our chairman, Councillor Ian Thomas, whose cabinet responsibility for EDDC includes broadband, and MP Neil Parish have had no more success at overcoming CDS's policy of secrecy."

A further public meeting is being held on Thursday, June 27th at the Peek Hall at 7 p.m.

■ ARTISTIC: The students show off their creations at the end of their residential arts course

Art students create their own 'masterpieces'

A MIX of college students and primary school pupils travelled from Axminster to Winkleigh for a residential arts course.

Held on June 8th and 9th, the trip was organised by Axe Valley Community College for selected arts student plus invited pupils from primary schools in the area.

The course took place at Beaford Arts, which specialises in providing high quality art experiences for schools and communities.

Emily Slade, a Year 6 pupil from Seaton Primary School, participated and said: "I thoroughly enjoyed my stay at Beaford. It was very enjoyable and I feel that the skills I have learnt will help me in later life. We all had a wonderful trip and the days were so crammed with art that they flew by.

Harmonious colours

"We experienced drawing plants and our fellow students in the woods.

"After that we made silhouettes, using graphite powder and templates made from our drawings and foliage we had collected.

"The next day we played with tissue paper shapes and harmonious and complementary colours.

"Finally, we combined all that we had learnt into our final canvases, we worked and built up our pictures in stages from rough sketches to glorious masterpieces.

"There were a few minor hiccups along the way, but overall none of this would have been possible without the help and guidance of Mrs Fletcher and Mr Sinclair, the art teachers at Axe Valley Community College who came with us on this residential trip."

The primary school pupils were from All Saints C of E Primary School, St Mary's RC Primary School, Beer C of E Primary School, Musbury Primary School, Seaton Primary School and Shute Primary School.

Dylan, 6, reading his own height in books

SIX-year-old Dylan Burrough has nearly read his own height in books since he started Devon Libraries' Booktrack Challenge in May last year.

Dylan, who is a pupil at St Mary's Catholic Primary School in Axminster, tackled 100 books as part of the challenge.

Among the 100 books he read, his favourites were the Sheriff Stan and Deputy Pete series by Mick Gower and the Percy the Park Keeper books by Mick Inkpen.

He visited Axminster Library on Tuesday, June 11th to receive a goody bag containing vouchers for Archway Bookshop, Pecorama, Escot and Flamingo Pool.

Hamlet trip for students

ABOUT 50 students and staff from Axe Valley Community College had an early start as they set off for Stratford-Upon-Avon at 6am on Thursday, June 13th.

A number of primary school pupils were also on-board the bus heading for a Hamlet performance by the Royal Shakespeare Company (RSC).

The students attended a theatre workshop at the RSC where they took part in several scenes from Hamlet.

They learned about how to position themselves on stage so that they could be seen from all three sides of the stage.

The RSC actors also showed them how the same Shakespeare lines could have a different impact on the audience depending on how they were read, eg threatening and intimidating or pleading.

The students then watched the almost four-hour matinee performance of Hamlet before meeting with some of the leading actors at a reception exclusively arranged for the Axminster contingent.

Jonathon Slinger, the actor who played Hamlet, generously gave the students half an hour of his time to answer their questions.

Rebecca Levi, ASPIRE co-ordinator at Axe Valley Community College, said, "I was impressed with how attentive the students were through what is a very long Shakespeare performance.

"At the end, we were fortunate enough to meet several of the actors we had watched on stage.

"The students asked intelligent questions of Jonathon Slinger, the actor who played Hamlet.

"It was a very long day and the students conducted themselves brilliantly throughout."

Wartime airman's bravery award 70 years on

A WORLD War Two veteran's bravery was formally acknowledged when he was awarded the Bomber Command Clasp.

Pat Cross, 93, served in the RAF as a wireless operator and air gunner, amassing two tours of duty totalling 50 sorties.

The Bomber Command Clasp is the result of an independent medal review last year and a subsequent decision that awards should be made to recognise the bravery of those who contributed to significant campaigns during World War Two.

Mr Cross, who lives between Axminster and Musbury, said that the day he joined the RAF was the worst day of his life.

Not because he was off to war but because the medical resulted in two extracted teeth and painful inoculations in both arms.

About the extracted teeth he said: "They needed

by Anders Larsson
anders@tindlenews.co.uk

filling, but they took them out instead."

He lived in Yeovil and travelled to a recruitment office in Bristol two days after war broke out.

The process was a very speedy one, and he found himself in Grimsby, via Uxbridge, within 24 hours.

During the war he flew on Hampdens and Lancasters with 83 Squadron and 97 Squadron.

Asked if he was ever afraid during missions, he said: "No, at 19 Bomber Command was an adventure."

"I was raised by my grandparents and every Sunday was spent in church, for example."

About the missions onboard Hampdens, he recalled: "We didn't do much damage but we kept the sirens going in Germany and kept people away from work."

After the war he joined British Overseas Airways Corporation (BOAC) as a radio officer and later spent 12 years with a company called Airwork Ltd, flying all over the Middle East.

He then took on running a garage in Dorchester before becoming landlord of The Golden Hind in Musbury for 20 years.

He retired in 1985.

◆The Bomber Command Clasp is granted to the aircrew of Bomber Command who served for at least 60 days, or completed a tour of operations, on a Bomber Command operational unit and flew at least one operational sortie on a Bomber Command operational unit from September 3rd 1939 to May 8th 1945 inclusive.

Four-year-old dachshund Harry was among 800 plus dogs entered for the show and won his coveted prize by triumphing in the Hound Group before taking on other group winners.

His owner, Ann Jeffery, was very proud and said: "I was amazed. The quality in the show is always very good."

Harry won bronze in the Limit Class at Crufts this year and is off for another show in Windsor at the end of June.

Minster planters

A JOINT effort by Axminster Town Council and a band of volunteers has made sure that Minster Green flower beds are up to scratch.

The three flower beds used to be planted and looked after by East Devon District Council, but have been the victims of budget cuts.

The town council decided to spend an amount of money on plants and a number of volunteers offered to weed the beds before putting in the plants.

Town clerk Hilary Kirkcaldie said: "It makes the town look smart. The town council is immensely grateful to the volunteers."

She also praised FJ Jackson & Son in Combe Raleigh for being able to deliver the plants at very short notice.

SMARTPHONE owners can learn how to maximise usefulness at a workshop to be held in Seaton Library.

Devon County Council (DCC) Library Service has laid on a series of events and activities to boost creativity and get people to try something new.

The Seaton smartphone session will be on Saturday July 6th from 10am-1pm.

Lions say thanks

MEMBERS of the Seaton and District Lions Club would like to thank the public for their help in raising £1,650 at their past two events.

The recent Budleigh Salterton male Voice Choir concert at the Gateway raised £1,050 whilst the Bank Holiday Street fair raised a further £590.

The group thanked the local community for their continual support, which helps their on-going charitable activities.

Coastguards call

BEER based Coastguards were tasked to check a vessel on Seaton Beach which appeared to be in danger of drifting off with the high tide.

They were called just before 10:45pm on Wednesday, June 12th, and a spokesperson for the Coastguard said: "The vessel, Loy Boy II, was near the water's edge, but was in no danger."

Long serving scout leader recognised

A BEER scout leader has been honoured by the Scout Association for his hard work and enthusiasm following eight years of service.

Nigel Groves was awarded the 'Chief Scout Commendation for Good Service' and was congratulated by his fellow leaders and scouting youngsters this week with a true soaking.

Whilst on a rafting session on Beer beach, the scouts decided to celebrate the award with a present of their own, by soaking Nigel with buckets of water.

The Chief Scout's Commendation for Good Service is given in respect of none less than five years good service and is regarded as the Chief Scout's recognition of the very real contribution made to the association by the individual concerned.

Nigel said: "I don't do scouting for the awards. The best reward for me is seeing the reactions from the young people when they overcome something or master a new skill. I was very surprised and pleased to receive this award from the Scout Association."

Parents of the scouts that were gathered on the beach at the end of a rafting session added: "We are really grateful for the hard work Nigel puts in for the scouts; they are always busy doing something or going somewhere."

If you want to join Nigel and the team as a volunteer, fundraiser or leader, you can contact him on 01297 21159.

TOWN COUNCIL SAYS THANK YOU | Members of Seaton Town Council hosted a thank you tea party at the Eyre Court Hotel as part of National Volunteers Week

Council says thanks to local volunteers

SEATON'S finest were celebrated during a special tea party where the town council invited their many volunteers to thank them for their hard work.

Joining in National Volunteers Week, which gives organisations throughout the UK a chance to thank their volunteers, members of Seaton Town Council hosted the tea party at the Eden Room at the Eyre Court Hotel, welcoming crowds of helpers.

Those attending included members of the Seaton Welcome Team, footpath wardens, green-fingered Seaton in Bloom members, tourist information volunteers and others who lend a hand to the council throughout the year.

Also attending the event were a handful of young volunteers sourced from Seaton's Baptist Church, who are currently visiting Seaton from Moorlands Bible College, and had spent the day helping to tidy the town for Seaton in Bloom.

Following a spread of food, each volunteer was presented with a certificate of thanks for their work in the town.

Seaton's town crier David Craner and his wife, Daisy, were also in attendance in traditional dress, adding to the afternoon's festivities.

During the afternoon event, the mayor, Councillor Gaynor Sedgwick, said: "This is a chance to say thank you."

"Seaton Town Council have so many dedicated volunteers who do so much in the community and on behalf of the council."

"I wanted to let you know that we appreciate you, value you and thank you very much for all you do throughout the year."

Next year, Seaton Town Council are planning to widen their event for National Volunteers Week by not only inviting their own volunteers, but volunteers throughout the town from all organisations and groups.

AXE Vale Festival bounced back in style after last year's washout and pulled in 10,000 or so visitors over the two days last weekend.

Festival chairman Tony Benger said the showpiece had followed its traditional pattern with a tentative start on the Saturday, followed by a busy Sunday.

He said: "We had many more visitors on the Sunday, but that is usually the trend."

He estimated the total number of visitors to about 10,000 and was reasonably pleased with the weather, saying: "I think we were lucky that the showers seemed to go around us."

"A little warmer and less windy would have been nice, though."

Mr Benger also reported that the sparrowhawk which disappeared during a display on the Saturday had returned safely.

Poor parking causes damage to property

A COLYTON resident has complained that his property is being damaged by "inconsiderate parking".

David Sibbald of Queen Street sent a letter and accompanying photographs to Colyton Parish Council, claiming that the wall outside his house had been damaged because of poor parking outside Soanes bike shop opposite, resulting in cars mounting the wall to pass.

He called for double yellow lines to be painted outside the shop as a solution, although he admitted he thought many people would ignore them.

Speaking at the recent council meeting, Councillor Sheila Smith said the problem occurred almost every day in that area.

Councillor Bob Collier added: "It's a very popular shop and ever-increasing traffic."

Councillor Howard West suggested that bollards be installed instead of lines, adding that double yellow lines "don't work in Colyton".

Councillor Mark Mann pointed out that last time county councillor Sara Randall-Johnson had attended one of their meetings, she had said new double yellow lines were unlikely to be painted as there was no one to enforce them.

Councillor West argued: "I don't agree with that. Localism means we are meant to be running more things ourselves but they won't let us do anything."

Councillor John Hay, who has been requesting new double yellow lines in nearby Sidmouth Road for months, said: "I feel really strongly about this - it's the law of the land, you don't park on double yellow lines."

It was agreed to add the problems in Queen Street to a list of highways issues to be discussed at a special meeting with Councillor Randall-Johnson and highways officers shortly.

Top gymnast visits school

■ BRITISH international gymnast Danny Lawrence visited Colyton Primary School on Friday to lead a sports challenge. Students from all year groups were tested on their fitness by taking part in a series of fast-paced activities, raising funds at the same time for new PE equipment from sponsorship. The Essex gymnast then told children about his career in a special assembly. He has competed in the Commonwealth Games and hopes to take part in the 2016 Olympics in Rio de Janeiro.

Food from around the world

CHILDREN from Colyton Caterpillars pre-school have been trying cuisine from around the world in recent weeks.

The Caterpillars hosted an Italian theme night, where about 50 guests were welcomed for a dinner of lasagne, vegetarian pasta, garlic bread, bread sticks, salad and puddings cooked by chef Damon Ralph and his wife Sarah from Graze in Sidmouth (pictured right).

James and Kathryn Voysey donated the beef and parents made the puddings.

Youngsters took part in a competition to build the tallest Leaning Tower of Pisa from toy bricks, won by Wil Eyre. The evening raised £300.

The children have since tucked into a Mexican lunch, trying chilli, nachos and guacamole (pictured above).

New website shares memories of the war

A NEW website has made it possible to explore memories of the only US naval airbase on British soil during the Second World War.

Visitors to the "Dunkeswell War Stories" website will discover a collection of short films featuring 26 local people and four American veterans, combined with animation, photographs, music and 1940s-inspired artwork.

There is also a memory bank for deeper research and a teachers' area developed with the help of staff and pupils at Broadhembury Primary School.

"Dunkeswell War Stories" was developed by the Blackdown Hills Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty (AONB) Partnership and produced by Dream Machine Media, thanks to a £39,600 grant from the Heritage Lottery Fund plus other contributions.

Blackdown Hills AONB information officer Katherine Findlay said: "Unlike a conventional film, this collection of moving, funny, sad and fascinating stories can be navigated in many different ways.

"Some films focus on the friendships between American servicemen and

■ WELCOME TO OFFWELL: Headteacher Anne Billington and The Reverend Peter Walker prepare are about to formally introduce Madam Mussa

Offwell welcomes African visitor

THERE was a sense of excitement at Offwell C of E Primary School when staff and pupils welcomed a headteacher from Tanzania.

The school successfully applied for a British Council Connecting Classrooms Project grant, which facilitates reciprocal visits between staff in partner schools across the globe.

Offwell's link is with Kombezi Priamry School in Tanga, Tanzania.

Madam Mussa, headteacher of Kombezi Primary School, spent a week in Offwell and got to know the school, staff and children.

Judy Davey of Offwell School said: "She investigated the similarities and differences between our schools and teaching styles.

"Children at Offwell have shared the responsibility for deciding on how the link will be developed.

"They have been investigating Tanzanian art work and created their own large-scale pieces, which are displayed in the playground.

"They have been learning about the similarities and differences in the cultures and geography of the two regions.

"Drumming workshops have taken place and children have learnt the Tanzanian national anthem in Swahili.

"Every child was challenged to learn to count to 50 in Swahili in order to raise money to purchase an iPad to enable Skype and e-mail communication between the two schools, to start on Madam Mussa's return."

Madam Mussa arrived on Friday, June 7th and the welcome ceremony was held in the school meadow, with parents and members of our wider community in attendance.

Next October, Offwell headteacher Anne Billington will pay a visit to Kombezi Primary School.

Popular holiday club returns to Kilmington

BUILDING on the success of the Olympic-themed "On Your Marks..." Holiday Club held in August 2012, children are invited to a week of fun and games at the Summer Holiday Club to be held at Kilmington Village Hall.

This year, the club will be based on Scripture Union's "Pyramid Rock" Holiday Club material and will include games, crafts, quizzes, puppets and video presentations as children learn about stories from the Bible.

The popular "Brain Drain" quiz will also be back, where correct answers result in the chance to choose water filled balloons to be popped over a leader's head. The event will also include mid-morning refreshments.

The summer club is open to all children aged five to 11 and runs from 10am to 12.45pm, from Monday August 12th to Friday 16th.

On Friday 16th there will be a special lunchtime barbecue for the children's families. There will also be a celebration and prize-giving event on Sunday, August 18th at 10.45am.

Event organisers Juleta Obudo and Karen Chape lead an experienced team of helpers, within generous adult to child ratios. All of the leaders are CRB checked and registered first aiders will be on site.

This year there are plans to run a mini bus service to and from the club, provided by Swards Coaches. For more information contact Juleta on 07785 767 441 or email admin@kidzplayz.net.

Spaces are limited so to avoid disappointment book early. There is no registration fee - however a suggested donation of £1 per child per day would be appreciated.

Registration forms can be downloaded from www.kbc.org.uk

Pulman's View

from the

With NIGEL SPELLER

THE news last week of Linda Chester's retirement on medical grounds has been greeted with great sadness and regret by her friends in all churches she served, especially at Axminster, Dalwood, Seaton & Colyton and in the wider Exeter Coast and Country Circuit – everywhere that she was a much loved and widely respected minister she will be greatly missed.

The Church of England has effectively accepted defeat over gay marriage signalling that it will no longer fight against change in the law.

There are also reports that Pope Francis praised the stance of the Archbishop of Canterbury on the issue. At the same time openly homosexual clerics will be questioned on behalf of the Archbishops before being considered as a bishop.

The Bishop of Salisbury, the Rt Revd Nicholas Holtam, has said gay marriage opponents are 'like Christians who used the Bible to support slavery'.

He argues that attitudes towards homosexuality have changed 'considerably' in the last 50 years and suggests it was time to 'rethink' attitudes towards allowing same-sex couples to marry, as Christians did with slavery.

Pope Francis has said that wasting food is like stealing from poor. He does not like to see people do it. Last week he said: "We are currently living in a culture of waste. People have got used to wasting food and that they don't think twice when discarding leftovers."

It has been reported that nearly one third of the food for consumer consumption is thrown out every year.

Awliscombe Church needs urgent roof repairs and has a sponsored Songs of Praise in

The Honiton Inn on Sunday, July 14th at 6pm. Choose your favourite hymn!

Seaton United Reform Church offers cream teas and slides of Snowdonia on Tuesday, June 25th at 2:30pm. They also offer free tea and coffee on Wednesdays at 10am ending with a short act of worship at noon.

Branscombe Church Flower Festival is on Friday, June 28th until Monday, July 1st - enquiries on 01395 514972.

The Friends of Branscombe Church hold their AGM at the Brancoc Hall on Saturday, June 29th at 3pm, to be followed by teas.

Dalwood Church's Flower Festival from June 28th-30th has 'Let's Dance' as its theme, and is supported by local people. Lunches & teas available. The event runs from 10am-5pm.

Luppitt Church is the venue for a three-day flower festival, also from June 28th-30th, open from 11am-7pm daily – refreshments with craft & plant stalls will be in the village hall (free taxi service if needed).

The festivities end on June 30th at 6pm with a Service of Celebration for all parishes of Dunkeswell Mission Community led by the Rector, the Rev'd Rik Peckham - all are welcome.

Feniton Church sees the event 'Pursue Your Past' with cream tea on Saturday 29th June 2pm to 4:30pm.

Last week saw the end of the ministry of the Rev'd Alastair McCollum at the Five Alive Mission Community and as Rural Dean of Honiton.

He has been invited to an appointment in Canada and moves there with his family. His place as Rural Dean of Honiton will be filled by the Rev'd Jeremy Trew.

LAURA O'Rourke has become a familiar face in and around Axminster since getting involved with Health and Local Food For Families (HALFF). The charity offers free advice and demonstrations on cooking healthy and nutritious meals on a budget – and Laura is playing a big part in spreading the message.

● WHERE were you born and where did you grow up?

I have lived most of my life in southern Hampshire. As a child, I lived on an island which was ideal... spending much of my childhood on the beach with my friends.

● WHEN and why did you move to East Devon?

I moved here four years ago, which is the best decision I have ever made. I love the environment, the people and lifestyle, although I do miss seeing my parents and old friends as often as I used to.

● WHAT was your dream job when you were growing up?

I was a keen musician at school, so dreamed I would do something creative when I left school. My mum recently reminded me that as an eight-year-old I did pretend to be Delia Smith teaching to cook a recipe in her kitchen. Who would have guessed that 40 years on I would be doing it for real, although I'm no Delia!

● HOW would you sum up HALFF and what it does?

HALFF teaches people how to cook tasty healthy meals for themselves and their families. It is a non-profit making charity which aims to help all ages within the community to eat a healthy balanced diet. I am involved in the Heart Hub project which helps people at risk of, or with heart disease or high blood pressure to improve their health through diet and exercise.

We run are running a pilot for teenage girls giving street dance classes with a healthy meal afterwards. We also give talks on heart health within the community. We send a free fortnightly newsletter for those who register with the Heart Hub. Call us and join now!

We also run cooking courses and have the fruit and veg shop in South Street with a garden at the back. The shop is also an information centre helping to give advice and guidance on food related issues. I believe in the concept of life-long learning.

There is always something that everybody can learn about food, what they are eating and how it helps their body to function, and what they need to eat to be healthy.

● WHAT makes you happy?

Spending time with the people I care about. Walks in the winter with my border collie Rosie on a sunny, frosty morning, followed by a proper cup of coffee. An evening in front of a log fire with friends, sharing good food, wine and stories.

● IF you won £1million, how would you spend it?

I'd replace my ailing old car. Buy a workshop to have my own pottery – so I could improve! I'd also like to give a reasonable sum to HALFF to allow us to continue our work without worrying about how we are going to fund it.

● WHICH (and why) is your favourite holiday destination?

I don't have a favourite destination. I do enjoy travelling. I love to experience different cultures and the food in different countries. There are still so many places I'd like to explore – New Zealand, the Italian countryside, South America, Africa... so the list goes on. Food would have to feature heavily in any trip!

ADVERTISERS ANNOUNCEMENT

Natural Burial Ground voted runner up

HIGHER Ground Meadow near Crewkerne has been named overall runner up in the People's Awards for the Best Natural Burial Ground in the UK.

After being named the best in the south west last month, three judges named Higher Ground Meadow a very close second to a site at East Meon in Hampshire.

The certificate was presented to owner Jo Vassie by Paul Atterbury, the antiques expert who had opened the burial ground in 2009. He said: 'Having watched the development of Higher Ground Meadow since the opening day, I am really pleased about the award. Totally justified and something special for Jo and her team, who have done so much to bring natural burial to West Dorset.'

Mrs Vassie said: 'My mother would have been so thrilled at Higher Meadow achieving second place, she died on April 21st this year aged 99, just before we found out we had been short listed and was the 105th person to be buried here. It is she who taught me to be fussy about things and the importance of detail. So many people are still unaware of their choices when it comes to a funeral and don't want to think ahead. Tracey Warren at Stoodley's is probably one of the best in the country at explaining options.'

Organisers of the awards, the Natural Death Centre Charity scrutinised the written feedback forms presented to families which have used the services of a natural burial ground, reading the comments of over a thousand members of the public. Unlike other awards which grade the facilities available on sites, or cover environmental issues, the People's Awards are all about the personal service received when someone arranges a burial at a natural site and the impact the manager or owner had on the bereaved families.

One of the judges, Dr Hannah Rumble from the University of Bath said: 'I liked the personal touches such as Jo Vassie wearing a colourful blouse at the behest of mourners and lining the burial plots with fresh pine cuttings etc; it demonstrates that custom is clearly valued, as is making the transaction memorable for mourner.'

Burials at Higher Ground Meadow cost between £495 and £695, including the use of Higher Ground Barn for a ceremony and the planting of a native tree.

East Devon Women's Institutes ROUND UP

SIDFORD

THE guest speaker at Sidford WI's June meeting was Rebecca de Mendonca who gave members a lively account of her life as an artist.

Rebecca comes from an artistic family and went to Wimbledon College to do a course in Theatre Design, where she was taught how to design and construct a set and design and make costumes. She had an interesting few years working in the theatre including designing the sets for Andrew Lloyd Webber's "Phantom of the Opera" and "Aspects of Love" in the West End, enjoying the close proximity of Michael Ball!

If you go to Harrod's Food Hall you can see the ceiling she worked on with Kevin McCloud, with its design of fruit and vegetables. After this came a period of book illustrations, including travel guides, painting her own pictures in gaps between jobs.

She met her husband in South America and went on to have three children, who became the next subjects of her pictures. Rebecca showed members some wonderful studies of children, capturing their spontaneity and movement.

She lived near a ballet school and painted some of the dancers there and now lives in Devon, near horses who are her latest subject.

Rebecca showed the group a selection of her pastel studies, which all gave an impression of movement, life and energy whether they were of actors, dancers, children or horses.

She now takes courses in pastel techniques in and around Exeter. Details can be found on www.rebeccademendonca.co.uk.

Rebecca's great humour and enthusiasm was very infectious and everyone thoroughly enjoyed the evening.

After tea and coffee, Beryl read out a report from the Core Hill member who was their group delegate at the National AGM, which was held in Cardiff.

The "Evening with Tony Beard" on May 17th was a great success, raising £383.29 for the club's charity, the Devon Freewheelers. Members are also planning to hold a fundraising coffee morning in aid of Sidmouth Scouts on October 12th.

The group's knitted farm is almost finished and Jean Bridgeman asked for ideas about who to give it to after it has been exhibited at the Horticultural show in August.

The Tour of Britain Cycle Race is due to start on Sidmouth seaford on September 20th and we the WI are planning a coffee and cake stall for spectators in Sidford, near the Post Office.

This month's competition for a miniature piece of enamel or hand-painting was won by Christine Bull, 2nd Gill Allen and 3rd Val Sharpe.

The next meeting is at 7pm on July 10th.

AWLISCOMBE

THE weather turned out perfect for 37 members of Awliscombe WI to thoroughly enjoy a visit to "Lift The Latch" near Chard.

Members were welcomed and given a brief history of the stunning garden by owners David and Pauline Wright.

Members were then able to stroll around the colourful two-acres. The dense planting of both evergreen and deciduous trees and shrubs and a wide range of perennials were greatly admired. To add interest the garden also has a large wildlife pond, a bordering stream and a raised Koi pond.

The evening ended after a delicious meal at the nearby Windwhistle Inn.

Mary Martin won the competition for best pendant.

ALL SAINTS

AT the June All Saints WI meeting, Allan Howlings gave members a talk and demonstration of tai-chi, starting with a brief history of tai-chi.

Allan persuaded about 20 members to try out the exercise. This was taken very seriously as members tried out the different movements.

A very enjoyable and interesting experience which some members thought they would like to take up.

The competition this month was named "The Tallest Weed". A lot of members entered some very tall weeds, some well over five feet, and wondered whether this indicated that there has not been a lot of weeding done for a while!

The speaker on July 9th at All Saints will be Dr John Twibell, who will be talking about forensic science and this meeting will be open to all.

COLYTON

THE new President of Colyton WI, Jean Hudson, welcomed members to the June meeting.

Members were given a very interesting and informative talk by Angela Bea on leading a healthy lifestyle. Members were asked whether they needed all the tablets they took or whether they did enough exercise.

The group's a carnival coffee morning, to be held on August 10th in Colyton Town Hall, was discussed, as well as a trip to Forde Abbey with a cream tea.

The next meeting will be the club's garden party at the Peace Memorial Hall on July 16th at 2.30pm. New members and guests most welcome.

Rotary Club and guests visit model village

THE Rotary Club of Otter Valley enjoyed a coach trip to Torquay and Babbacombe Model Village, which is this year celebrating its 50th anniversary.

The trip has become a regular event on the Rotary Club's calendar, with a coach full of old folk from Ottery St Mary and the surrounding villages joining the excursion.

Once again, members enjoyed the good weather. The tour started with the Winter Wonderland scene of a Victorian village, with lovely lighting effects and other models.

The group saw a number of different scenes, including many waterfalls, model trains, farms, villages and even a fire breathing dragon protecting his medieval castle. It would have been impossible to count the number and variety of dwarf conifers — as well as a backdrop of larger pines.

After climbing back up the gardens members were rewarded with a cream tea.

Those interested in joining next year's trip should phone 01404 813 536. All welcome.

Legion ladies raise £130 at cream tea

HONITON Royal British Legion Women's Section held its big cream tea on Tuesday, June 11th.

Members were pleased to have raised £130 for the Legion Benevolent Fund and would like to thank Gillian Broom for making the scones for and Tesco for donating the cream

The branch's monthly meetings are held at The Methodist Church on the first Monday in the month at 2pm and bingos are held in Mackarness Hall on the third Monday in the month.

CLOSED SUNDAY & MONDAYS

Council made the right decision on green wedge

■ SOMEWHAT misquoting Oscar Wilde, "To lose one coach may be regarded as a misfortune; to lose a second looks like carelessness"!

Well, we just wanted to apologise, in a light-hearted way, to all those from Seaton, Colyford and Colyton who entrusted us with their travel arrangements in order to go to the council offices at Knowle last Tuesday.

We're referring, of course, to the coach-load of objectors (plus placards), who hoped to have the planning application to build on the Seaton Green Wedge turned down. Fortunately, the problem with missing coaches was a temporary one which, hopefully, was forgotten when we got the result we wanted. The application was refused!

A lot of people gave their time and, in some cases, their expertise to obtain relevant information and prepare their presentations. Others created eye-catching placards. Everyone did their bit but special thanks are due to "Team West" (we know who they are!) who seemed to be on tap 18 hours a day to advise, liaise and generally rally the troops.

Thanks are also due to our MP, Neil Parish, and (with one notable exception) to all the town and district councillors for their support. At the end of the day they had the vote, they made the decision. Whether they were influenced by the strength of feeling or not doesn't really matter. It was the right decision and, on this occasion, we felt our views had been listened to.

Of course, we are resigned to the probability of an appeal so if you care about your community be prepared to step forward and have your say. You have that right. It is an equal, democratic right we all have despite suggestions to the contrary which we thought were uncalled for and (dare we say?) rude!

ROBIN AND BONTE POCOCC,
Colyford

Why not find space in Sidmouth for development?

■ YOUR report (Pulman's View From Seaton, June 18th) that East Devon District Council, in the person of its planning officers, thinks that the loss of agricultural land, making a serious impact on wildlife and tourism, is a price worth paying to make up for its vulnerability on its shortfall in housing supply throughout the district.

In light of the overwhelming defeat (11-0, two abstentions) by the Development Management Committee of the application in Seaton, why not find a similar location in Sidmouth to solve the problem? What's good for the goose is good for the gander. However, I am willing to wager that a proposal for such an appalling destruction of the countryside would not get past the first hurdle were it concerning Sidmouth instead of Seaton.

Tesco too big for Seaton

■ TO the reader who says that Tesco is a great addition to Seaton and why all the carping?

Well, the argument was never about whether Seaton should have another supermarket, it was about which one and how big.

The Sainsbury's offer would have resulted in a smaller store more suited to a small town, no loss of parking spaces at the Underfleet and a Visitor Centre above the store which would have magnificently overlooked the Axe Wetlands.

Moreover, it would have been open two years ago and would have been generating income for itself and the town during this recession.

Tesco has made a decision that supermarkets the size of the one in Seaton are too big (we told you so) and are therefore planning to open "stores within stores" in them. This will further remove any incentive for people to visit Seaton's independent shops in Fore Street, which will have a double whammy when parking at the Underfleet Car Park is reduced from 365 spaces to around 150 to accommodate the Visitor Centre - conveniently situated next to Tesco. It may also impact on the Grizzly parking and probably mean no visits from the carnival fair.

SANDRA SEMPLE
Bartholomew Street West, Exeter

How much longer should we put up with seagulls?

■ HOW much longer do we have to put up with the increased breeding each year of these herring gulls that are now coming further inland and nesting on private rooftops.

Here in Axminster, as in many other towns, we are getting plagued with these noisy, messy and vicious birds.

I have written to the RSPB three times recently about a sensible cull with no response from this organisation, which I presume means we, the public, can take matters into our own hands.

A recent "Spring Watch" programme showed gulls nesting on a rooftop in Bristol. It mentioned that there are between 2,000-2,500 breeding pairs in Bristol alone, also that these birds are enjoying town life now for various reasons.

They also said you either love or hate them, surely it is doing a disservice to these birds because more people will hate them if they are not controlled.

A privilege to receive BEM for Hospiscare work

■ JUST over a year ago I heard that I had been awarded a BEM. It is awarded to volunteers.

I have had a marvelous year, so much kindness from so many people, finishing with a wonderful visit to Buckingham Palace.

I would like to thank everyone who helped me. My charity, Hospiscare, helps anyone who also needs their care. Being able to work for them has been a great privilege.

David Lloyd Cabinet Maker

MY name is David Lloyd. I have been a cabinet maker and joiner since 1995. I have been in my Dunkeswell workshop, next door to Peter Quinain hardwoods, since 2003. I am celebrating my 10th anniversary this year! What do I make? Well, almost anything in wood!! I make free standing and fitted furniture for kitchens, dining rooms, living rooms, bedrooms, studies, bathrooms and even the garden! Designs are agreed with the client after discussing needs, specifications and any foibles or special features they may require. Bespoke furniture making permits freedom of design and choice of material to suit all tastes and budgets. I also undertake bespoke joinery commissions if you need something a little different. Awkward, odd sized or listed building compliant internal / external doors, staircases and windows etc... I am passionate about using English timber for my commissions as I believe it has more character. However I will use timber from overseas if the job requires it or you would like to use it, for example, using American Black Walnut for kitchen work-tops or African Sapele for doors. I would be happy to see you at my workshop to discuss a future project or to chat about wood. If you are going to the Honiton show, on August 1st this year, meet me and see some of my work in the Blackdown Hills marquee. Please see my extensive portfolio online; www.davidlloyd.co.uk, give me a ring 01404 891800 or email info@davidlloyd.co.uk

N.C. Jacks

N.C. JACKS Landscaping is a small, family-run business that has been working in the East Devon and West Dorset area since 1986. The business aims to provide a high quality service designed to meet your individual requirements. This may be a design to completion project or an individual job such as a patio or fencing.

Whether you are looking for a patio area to relax and enjoy your garden from, or just a path way to access another area, paving is the ideal choice. Hard wearing and permanent the style of finishes is extensive.

Dry Stone provides a very strong and flexible wall. Traditionally built with natural stone with no mortar or concrete and simply back filled with soil it works well in a cottage garden where a more traditional look is required. It provides an attractive base for plants to grow through.

We carry out a full range of fencing services from traditional panels, close boarding and post and rail, as well as trellis and gates.

Decking provides a more contemporary hard garden surface. Softer than paving it can be used on its own or as a compliment to hard paving. It is well suited to level uneven awkward sites. Balustrading and hand rails give a practical and attractive finish.

Eden Garden Developments

EDEN Garden Developments make finding a contractor simple by providing for all clients' Garden Design, Construction & Care requirements, large and small locally. The Design & Build Unit of A1 Environmental Services, offers a friendly, professional, integrated service.

The Seaton, Devon base covers a 30 mile radius. Installing all types of Fencing, Gates and Decking, Walling and Patios, Eden offers a complete Landscaping Service including Lawn, Horticulture and Aquatics, either as a package or in affordable stages.

An example is Decking where a robust and beautiful Deck can be built either with Post and Rail Balustrades (illustrated) or with Spindles, which can be added later (also shown). In fact "cost leadership" is at the forefront of the business whilst keeping quality and the principles of design paramount.

Much of the heavy work can be done during Autumn and Winter when the ground is less compacted and this time is also perfect for most pruning and restocking with trees and shrubs, either potted or bare root specimens. So by Spring many garden improvements can be ready to be enjoyed.

Business founder, designer and artisan craftsman Norman Brown holds an MSc. in Environmental Planning & Management and has contributed to books, periodicals and the gardening press. CATH du Preez MTI

Registered practitioner and full member of the Massage Training Institute (MTI) and the Complementary & Natural Healthcare Council (CNHC)

Massage is a hands-on, holistic method of health care. Massage therapists use hands-on techniques on the muscles, fascia, tendons, ligaments and joints to bring relief from everyday aches, reduce stress, increase relaxation, address feelings of anxiety and tension, and aid general wellness.

Massage therapy also treats specific physical and medical conditions by releasing muscle tension, restoring muscle and postural balance, increasing circulation and improving tissue nutrition. Therapeutic massage can effectively treat long term chronic pain, motor vehicle accident rehabilitation, athletic injuries, repetitive strain injuries and nerve impingements.

It can also be used in support of other therapies to assist in the rehabilitation of muscular injuries i.e. massage can improve the effectiveness and comfort level of chiropractic or physiotherapy care.

Massage can also be an important part of a preventative maintenance program. For long term health, consider a maintenance plan of monthly treatments. This approach works well when you are at a level of health that you want to maintain. The monthly massages take care of minor aches before they become painful problems.

Bliss Therapies

BEAT THE SUMMER TIME BLUES!

Bring the sunshine in to your wellbeing...Relax...Rebalance...Reenergise! for your head to Toe Holistic Harmony!

At BLISS COMPLEMENTARY THERAPIES Therapy room in Sidmouth and Ottery St Mary. One Saturday per month Victoria will be offering therapy treatments at Busy Lizzies Store in OSM. Home visits also available.

Reflexology is a specialised form of compression massage, applied to the feet with the fingers and thumbs. Every part of the body has its corresponding reflex point on the feet. By working over the reflex areas on the feet, imbalances in the energy pathways may be detected. Reflexology can help to rebalance the body as a whole.

Indian Head massage is a calming and yet energising massage focussing on vital energy points on the face, head, shoulders and upper back. If you are stressed, angry or tired, tensions tend to accumulate in these areas resulting in stiff necks, sore shoulders, headaches and eye strain. It can release blockages and so relieve build up of tension.

Holistic body massage is a deep tissue massage that eases away body tension and loosens tight knotted muscles. This deeply relaxing and yet invigorating massage can bring great relief to those who suffer from aches and stiffness especially shoulders and back. The holistic massage includes an amazing facial massage!

I HOLD my private chiropody clinic at Townsend House Surgery in Seaton on Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays.

I offer a range of treatments from a simple nail cut to nail surgery, and each treatment plan is priced accordingly.

The nail cutting only service is a shorter appointment and is ideal for those that don't have any other foot care needs. Others like to alternate nail cuts with chiropody treatments as it best suits their requirements. I always aim to work with the patient to find the best treatment plan to suit each individual. Patients feet are then monitored during treatment so that changes can be made should the need arise.

Diabetic patients who attend for chiropody will also have a diabetic foot assessment carried out during their first treatment, and will then be monitored and re-assessed as necessary.

My chiropody clinics are available to anybody seeking help with their feet and Townsend House and I look forward to welcoming you.

Bookings can be made by calling 01297 22956.

✿ Val Davis Traditional Acupuncture

Acupuncture can improve & maintain health & energy & enhance a sense of well-being

ACCORDING to traditional Chinese philosophy, our health is dependent on the body's motivating energy (qi) moving in a smooth and balanced way through a series of channels beneath the skin.

Acupuncture can affect the quality of qi, your body's vital energy, by the insertion of very fine needles into specific points along these channels. This stimulates the body's healing response and restores natural balance. Treatment is aimed at the root cause of your condition as well as your main symptoms. This approach helps with resolving your problem and enhancing your feeling of well-being. You may notice other niggling problems resolve as your main health complaint improves.

The type of conditions that I mostly see in my clinics include the following: arthritis, back pain and sciatica, poor circulation, low energy levels, hormonal/menopausal symptoms, pregnancy management, fertility problems, weight management, and addictions such as smoking. However, you don't have to be ill in the conventional sense to benefit from acupuncture, sometimes people come to see me because they are feeling low, unwell in themselves, or maybe not sleeping as well as they would like to.

Professional Acupuncturists spend at least 3 years training at degree level to become an Acupuncturist. We are then entitled to join the British Acupuncture Council and to use the letters Lic.Ac., B.Ac.C after our names. We also have public liability and professional indemnity insurance. Many of us have also studied at post-graduate level and are constantly updating our skills and experience.

So, why not give me a ring and see if I can help.

✿ Head to Feet

TREATMENTS last approx. 1hr and can include soft relaxing music perfumed candles. Home visits for housebound and elderly.

Reflexology is a none abrasive therapy for the feet and hands. It is one of the oldest therapies. It is not just foot massage, as different parts of the body can be helped in different ways, palpating and pressure. It is very relaxing especially for people with long term problems, especially those caused by stress or those which causes stress. Reflexology reduces stress, enabling our bodies to work better, if we are less stressful we also have less pain and are less susceptible to common ailments, because our body and mind is working better therefore we are healthier.

Indian Head Massage also is very relaxing and has been helping people for hundreds of years. It can be given with or without oils, but obviously the use of oils are more beneficial. The western therapy includes shoulder, upper spine, upper arms, neck head and face. This therapy can be given sitting in a chair and can be done on top of thin clothing. Some employers are offering Indian Head Massage for their employees in stressful jobs, having realized the benefits of improved productivity. I can also include a beauty massage if required for a little extra charge.

Therapeutic Massage [Back and shoulder with oils]

It is surprising how many problems start with stress from the spine and shoulders, which can effect our lives in lots of ways, someone once said " more time is lost off work because of back and shoulders problems than most anything else..

Health & Wellbeing

means that the clock rules many of our lives, and the clock is ticking. School runs, meetings, deadlines, and commitments. Most people fill their day from start to end.

The pressure is on to conform to look good to be thin to wear the right stuff to pass exams to be better than we are, everyone seems to expect so much.

Aside from the obvious blood pressure raising, with the stress of being under chronic time pressure, and conformity, our modern lifestyles mean most of us just don't take the time to exercise or prepare healthy meals, take regular healthy exercise or relax properly.

The problem is that some of the key lifestyle factors leading to primary high blood pressure (a silent killer, hypnosis can help to lower your blood pressure alongside life style changes) include being overweight, eating too much; salt, stress and emotional distress and lack of exercise, add trying to find time to relax and be mindful and it all seems too overwhelming. If we add to that the additional issues of illness and care giving it might seem we just don't have the time to do it all, but by taking a different approach, it can be different.

So time may be a precious resource, but what's more important than your wellbeing and your health? Take the time to make some changes and learn how you can take control of your life today, if there is something you want to change call Michelle Hague 07761773563.

CALENDAR GIRLS GETTING READY

Axminster Drama Club's Calendar Girls

THINGS are now getting serious at The Plaza, home of Axminster Drama Club. With less than a month to go to "curtain up" this week was time for some of the cast of Calendar Girls to disrobe and practice one of their most challenging scenes - posing for their fictional calendar.

This also however gave the girls a chance to pose for their very own calendar which will be on sale during each production at a cost of only £3.00 with half of all profits going to cancer charities.

Calendar Girls, the play, written by Tim Firth is based on the well-known film of the same name starring amongst others Julie Walters and Helen Mirren and is all about a WI group in Yorkshire who were moved to produce a nude calendar to raise funds for a memorial for one of their club members' husband. The play, whilst having moments of pathos, is incredibly funny and thought provoking and the cast of ADC's production are working hard to put on the best production of this wonderful play they can.

Performances for Calendar Girls are at 7.30pm on Thursday 18th, Friday 19th and Saturday 20th with a matinee at 2.30pm on Saturday 20th. Tickets are available now from Archway Bookshop Axminster (tel 01297 33595) or by calling 01404 831089 after hours for only £10.00 in advance or £12.00 on the door.

Free music tasters and research for young musicians across West Dorset and East Devon

B SHARP is offering a series of free music making sessions from 29th June to 13th July in Bridport, Colyton, Lyme Regis, Beaminstor, and Seaton. Across West Dorset and East Devon, B Sharp are planning to develop music groups (ensembles). The project is part of a national strategy to include more young people in music making in rural areas.

The first session kicks off at Bridport Arts Centre this Saturday 29th and the last is at Seaton Town Hall on Saturday 13th July. Sessions are also taking place in different Secondary and Primary schools across the region and will be led by the inspirational music leader John K Miles. Every young musician wishing to attend aged 8 – 19 years should go along to one of the sessions either the secondary or primary school in their area or go along to either of the Saturday sessions.

Marie Negus, B Sharp project leader, says "Simply come along with your voice and instrument if you have one, everybody is welcome whatever musical interest or experience you have."

"We want young musicians who are already playing an instrument, percussion or singing, musicians of all levels, beginners to advanced, it doesn't matter where you live or what you play."

"There are four simple steps to take. Step 1: Go online www.bsharp.uk.com and register your interest in any one of the free sessions. Step 2: Complete the music questionnaire. Step 3: Turn up to one of the free sessions."

Fran Williams B Sharp Director said: "At the end of every B Sharp project we get asked by families 'what's next?' We know there is a need for high quality creative music groups to be established in the rural areas that can provide ongoing music opportunities to develop skills and interests. Music provision is often patchy in rural areas and accessing it can be difficult. We want to see if we can set up different ensembles in different areas by overcoming some of those barriers, this project is an exciting and important opportunity to see how best to do this. This project is funded by Youth Music in association with Bournemouth, Dorset and Devon Music Hubs. John K Miles has worked on various B Sharp projects, including the high profile Coastal Voices where 200 young people sang at Poole Lighthouse and Weymouth Beach for the opening of the Olympics."

The message is loud and clear - if you are a parent or a young musician then get in touch and register your interest in these free sessions and any future opportunities at www.bsharp.uk.com or contact marienegus@bsharp.uk.com.

Josienne Clarke and Ben Walker are next Jurassic Folk guests

IN a scene full of songs and singers, Josienne Clarke and Ben Walker give you the real thing. Both classically trained, their musical proficiency is beyond doubt. But this isn't about technical accomplishment. This is about a song, first and foremost.

Whether interpreting words centuries old, or singing her own authentic lyrics, Josienne's jewel-like voice finds the nuance and melancholy in the simplest phrase and effortlessly sends it straight to your heart. Ben's musical tact and mastery of the guitar provide the perfect setting and allow the song centre-stage.

Josienne was born in Sussex, and Ben in Evesham. It was after studying in London, and utterly by chance, that they met in July 2009. They have been working together ever since. Critical acclaim soon followed, along with the Isambard Folk Award and the FATEA award for Female vocalist of the year. Their work together combines an exquisite command of their instruments with lyrics steeped in the tradition of English songwriting, and in ageless stories of love and loss.

A review of a recent show read: "Ben and Josienne are a delicate, winding and unwinding proposition that requires close attention... She has this voice that's like a precision tool for making golden, ringing shapes in the air ... It's as if they pull in all the energy in the room, concentrate it in some kind of musical alchemy and then spin it into shimmering cathedrals of sound."

Josienne Clark and Ben Walker perform at Jurassic Folk's Guest Night on Wednesday, July 3rd from 8.15pm.

Advance tickets £8. On the door they will be £10. It all happens at the Grove, Seaton, 3rd July, with doors open at 7.45pm.

SEATON HOSTS MAJOR FESTIVAL TO CELEBRATE JURASSIC COAST AND NATURAL ENVIRONMENT

PLANS are beginning to shape up for the Natural Seaton festival, which is set to take place on July 19th and 20th.

Organised by the Seaton Visitors Centre Trust, the festival will celebrate the town's distinctive geomorphological areas and the East Devon Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty.

Whether it's delving into the Cabinet of Curiosities; visiting the amazing 360 degree Science Dome to see and hear tales of science, nature and the world of dinosaurs; experiencing the story of the Great Landslip of 1839 through puppetry or perhaps taking a unique trek to Goat Island itself, created by the Landslip and not normally accessible to the public; enjoying a cruise along the local stretch of the Jurassic Coast, taking a tram ride along the Axe Estuary to explore the Wetlands or simply enjoying crafting willow, mud monsters, creating a large Plesiosaur or painting fossils, the festival offers everyone the opportunity to develop a deeper understanding of the natural world of Seaton and its unique natural environment.

Now in its second year, the Natural Seaton Festival celebrates the wealth of natural features and heritage opportunities within the Seaton area, and invites all ages to explore Seaton's natural world both past and present.

The festival kicks off on Friday July 19th at 6.30pm, with a fascinating evening of talks at Seaton Town Hall by scientists from Plymouth University on the undersea life offshore, followed by Doug Hulyer on the progress and educational benefits of the Jurassic Coast Discovery Centre planned for Seaton.

On Saturday July 20th the festival continues at the Underfleet car park and picnic site, and runs from 10am until 4pm.

The Natural Seaton Festival is made possible with support from organisations including Seaton Town Council, Seaton Town Development Team, Seaton Primary School PTA, Axe Valley Runners, Seaton Phoenix, East Devon AONB, Seaton Carnival Committee, Devon Wildlife Trust, RSPB, Jurassic Coast Team, Axe Vale & District Conservation Society, Seaton Tramway, Natural England and Axe Wetlands Team.

*in and around East Devon,
West Dorset and South Somerset*

We've got the lot...

WITH the school holidays now upon us, and the sun having made its long-awaited appearance, tourists are starting to flock to this area.

With the tough economy at present, many people are sacrificing their holidays abroad this year and choosing British resorts instead.

Tourism is the lifeblood of this particular area and already our resorts are seeing an increasing number of visitors, especially at weekends.

If you take a look at the beauty of our seaside towns and surrounding country areas, who wants to spend several hours queuing in Terminal 5 at Heathrow airport, especially as there's every likelihood you will be separated from your luggage for ever more.

A leisurely drive down the A303 or the M5, even at peak times, is much more sensible.

The triangle that makes up East Devon, West Dorset and South Somerset has some of the most spectacular scenery in the British Isles with a welcome second to none.

As part of the Jurassic Coast, a World Heritage Site, we sit on equal terms with the Taj Mahal and Grand Canyon.

And we do so with every right for when it comes to heritage we are right up there with the top tourist spots in the world.

This supplement, Summer Holidays 2013, is designed to show off our area to its best ...a concise record of all the best things about spending the lazy, hazy days of summer in picturesque East Devon, West Dorset and South Somerset.

This is a Jurassic Triangle - and if you get lost there will always be a friendly soul to put you back on the right track again.

Summer Holidays 2013 contains dozens of ideas of how to spend your time in our company wisely, where to eat and places to visit.

There really is something for everyone - no matter what age.

From genteel cream teas in village settings, to bracing cliff top walks, or traditional family pursuits on sun kissed beaches, Summer Holidays 2013 will point you in the right direction.

Ferne Animal Sanctuary

IN Somerset we are lucky to have a huge range of destinations for a family day out. One of the best is Ferne Animal Sanctuary.

Ferne strives to provide care and refuge for unwanted domestic and farm animals. Set in the Somerset countryside, it is a must for couples and families of all age.

Take a picnic, see the animals, and at the same time help a deserving charity. Admission is completely free at Ferne Animal Sanctuary, so why not have an expense free day out this summer?

Alpha Alpacas

ALPHA Alpacas just south of Melplash, on the A3066, have decided to open their gates to the public after many years of people stopping to peer over the gates at the alpacas. The herd is one of the top herds in the UK. The Alpaca Experience is being run in conjunction with the Pymore Inn who are providing the cream teas and acting as the booking agents. The Experience will allow visitors to learn more about these fascinating creatures, who originate from high up in the Andes. They are bred for their very fine fibre, which is used to produce both knitwear and worsted cloth. Alpacas have been in the UK since Victorian times, but it is only in the last 15 years that they have been farmed commercially – there are now more alpacas in the UK than goats! Alpacas come in all colours from white through to black and during the Experience visitors will have the opportunity to learn more about alpacas and their fibre, followed by a leisurely walk around the 15 acre farm to see the 60+ alpacas on the site including Jack, who recently was crowned Supreme Champion at the British Alpaca Society National Show and other award winning alpacas. There are 23 cria (babies) due to be born over the coming weeks so some visitors may witness 'the miracle of birth' followed by paddocks of playful youngsters. Before enjoying a Dorset Cream Tea there will be the opportunity to take an alpaca for a walk. Alpaca products will also be on sale. To book – phone 01308 422625. Good footwear is advisable as the farm is a bio-secure area and visitors will enter across a disinfectant mat. Parking available on site.

Dorset County Museum

THIS summer there's so much going on at Dorset County Museum. Our new family exhibition, ANIMATE!, sponsored by Pardoes Solicitors, opens on 13 July and will reveal the wonderful world of film animation over the last two centuries. Over 120 artefacts will be on display from the Bill Douglas Centre for the History of Cinema and Popular Culture at Exeter University. There will also be objects from the British Film Institute National Archive, the Ray Harryhausen Foundation and from independent local animators. The artefacts range from Victorian flick books, shadow theatres and puppets to posters, catalogues, original Disney film cells and merchandising toys.

Children can make their own animated films and participate in workshops to learn how it's done. A series of talks will provide a fascinating insight behind the scenes of famous animated films. Contact the Museum on 01305 756827 to book tickets and to find out more about these exciting family events.

During the school holidays there are Dino Club sessions on 6, 13 and 20 August especially for the under 7s. Our regular family activities also run throughout the holidays on Wednesday mornings and are always popular. Three of the sessions will take up the animation theme of the summer exhibition. All Dino Club and Family activities in 2013 are generously sponsored by Battens Solicitors and are FREE!

East Devon Riding Academy

EAST Devon Riding Academy offers an unrivalled approach to learning to ride, where lessons are about far more than just following the bum in front! We strive to provide safe and enjoyable lessons, with an emphasis on building harmonious relationships with the horses & ponies.

We believe that the art of horse riding requires more than a 'pull and kick' approach, so we aim to teach riders to develop their riding skills neatly and with feel. This allows riders to communicate more effectively with the horses & ponies, bringing greater achievement, safety and confidence. Specialising in individual lessons or very small groups of siblings, family or friends. Our horses & ponies are much loved and valued members of our team. They have quality, well fitted tack and are looked after to a high standard. East Devon Riding Academy is also an approved Pony Club Centre, where members can work towards achievement badges and certificates.

Win a place on a Pony Morning worth £32

EAST Devon Riding Academy offer pony mornings for children throughout the school summer holidays. All levels of experience welcome as groups split according to age and ability if required.

The next Pony Morning is Wednesday 31st July

What is a Pony Morning?

A pony morning usually runs from 10am to 1pm. Children come to the Riding Academy to learn about riding and different aspects of looking after and handling the ponies.

Children will have a riding lesson and the remaining time will be spent doing hands on activities and games to learn about stable management and riding theory in a small group. There are a limited number of places on each morning to ensure quality of tuition and sufficient attention for each participant.

Our pony mornings are fully supervised and educational; the children are being taught as they take part.

What types of activities are there on a Pony Morning?

The mornings give children hands on experience of ponies, where they get the opportunity to ride and take part in activities such as:

- Grooming the ponies, picking out their feet and learning about the different brushes.
- Catching and leading the ponies in from the fields.
- Tacking up and learning about different tack and equipment.

- Bathing the ponies (when its warm enough!) and learning to plait their manes and tails.
- Feeding, watering and mucking out.
- Riding a dressage test, around obstacle courses and practicing handy pony skills.
- Games, competitions and treasure hunts.

Parents do not need to stay with their child during the pony morning. As long as your child is happy to be left with us then they can take part.

Pony mornings make an ideal gift. We have welcomed many children for a holiday treat or if mum and dad just want a few hours peace and quiet!

The cost is £32 per child and includes hat hire, if required. Each child goes home with a rosette and workbook.

Pony mornings are a great way to get children exercising in the fresh air with other like minded children. We have seen many friendships develop at our pony mornings.

All levels of experience are welcome as groups are split if required.

Riding clothes are not needed, we provide hats and we are happy to advise you of the most suitable clothing.

For information or to book a place contact Natalie on 01297 553280 or 07771 903220

To enter the competition please send a postcard with your name, address, telephone number and email address on to Pony Morning Competition, DD&S Series of Newspapers Ltd, Unit 3, St Michael's Business Centre, Church Street, Lyme Regis, Dorset, DT7 3DB

A traditional hamlet pub and free house that offers a range of cask ales, draught lagers and ciders listed in the Good Beer Guide, and a range of New world wines supported with a classic food menu. The menu includes some established home made pub favourites such as Steak & Ale pie, as well

Our next planned event is on Sunday 28th July when we shall be holding a family garden party and fete, a fun afternoon for all, finishing in the evening with a disco, with hot food available too.

The Pymore is the ideal meeting point before you go off on your Alpha Alpaca Experience, which is a splendid afternoon on the farm and enjoy meeting these friendly animals and enjoy a tasty Dorset cream tea.

The Harbour Inn

Come and experience the relaxing newly refurbished Harbour Inn at Axmouth

OWNERS, Gary and Toni Valentine recently unveiled their new vision for the village pub, with a complete redesign, enhancing the 12th century traditional building, a brand new menu and something for everyone.

With the chance to relax in the sunshine in the patio and beer garden, snuggle with cake and coffee in the lounge with an open fire or enjoy a sit down meal from the contemporary menu; everyone can be safe in the knowledge that they can enjoy their visit.

From traditional Sunday lunches to a full English breakfast kick-starting your day; The Harbour Inn boasts a range of delicious treats. There is lots to choose from with the menu divided into themes from a New York 'on the streets' theme inspired by a recent trip to the city, to a 'From the sea' and 'From the Land' section and 'two for one' deals to little nibbles, garden treats and sharing boards.

Inspired by their recent trip to the Big Apple; its now possible to dine out on some of the New York specials that have earned a worldwide reputation, including the classic New York chilli dog, New York sliders, pulled pork shoulder and the Juicy Lucy burger (price range £7.50 to £11.)

For those looking for a snack during the day (12 noon to 6 pm) a sandwich in a bag (tuna bagel cheese melt, ham, cream cheese and tomato and the classic BLT) can be purchased for £4.

Naughty treats' are also playing a big role, with a brand new sweets menu, packed full of retro desserts such as chocolate brownie with all the trimmings, complete with chocolate milkshake which comes in a miniature glass milk bottle with a straw; toffee apple Eton mess and peach melba knickerbocker glory.

The pub's new 'Breakfast Club' also hopes to welcome people to enjoy a full English breakfast, seven days a week, from 9am until 11.30am.

The cosy thatched pub on Church Street is known for its traditional feel, black beams and period features and has now been enhanced with new heritage colour schemes, a light, fresh and airy feel and a state of the art kitchen.

Whilst areas have been stripped out, panelled and carpeted, the traditional features such as the open fires and original beams remain in tact, giving the pub a much-needed rejuvenation and a modern twist.

The bar has been completely relocated, doubling the size of the room as you enter, and a relaxed style has been implemented with a mixture of new bespoke table and chairs for dining to comfortable zones for visitors who just want a coffee and a biscuit.

Adding to the different zones in the pub, a new 'Captains Room' is available to hire and has been created for parties, meetings and functions, with a giant specially created table set to seat twenty people; whilst you can be sure that if you're celebrating a birthday, a free bottle of bubbly will be on the table.

Quirky props such as golden clad mirrors, paddles round every corner reflecting the pub's new logo and a typewriter to hold on to the menus are also set to bring the pub alive.

The couple have always had a flair for interior design and an eye for special touches, with their company, G&T Interiors influencing much of the new design for the Harbour Inn. The company is set to have a small outlet at the pub, selling one off quirky pieces and items inspired by the couple's travels during expeditions abroad.

Owner, Gary Valentine said: "Toni and I welcome all to enjoy their visit to the Harbour at Axmouth and we look forward to showing more of the community what we have to offer. "We have worked hard to ensure the vision can keep every bit of the pub's character and enhance its 12th century features, whilst giving it a contemporary new look.

"We have tried to make sure that there is something for everyone, from our Captains Room for parties and meetings, to our relaxed zone and dining area and a dog friendly bar.

"We have also created our own wedding package for just £999 where we have a complete plan including a three course wedding breakfast for up to fifty people for couples who want the perfect day without spending thousands of pounds.

"We are particularly excited about our new menu which we feel has something for all kinds of customers, and are looking forward particularly to implementing our new New York inspired section in tribute to our visit there.

"Whilst being competitively priced, we are still aiming to bring a high level of quality and customer service and are excited to show off the new changes."

The Harbour at Axmouth is open from 9am until late seven days a week.

Pulman's Property View

An exceptional Edwardian residence, currently a well-known hotel ROUSDON NR LYME REGIS - £1,200,000

DOWER House is an impressive Edwardian property which in recent years has been used as a well known hotel, but would equally provide an exceptionally spacious period residence. The property is substantially brick built with tile hung upper elevations under a tiled roof.

The business has been operated more recently on a Bed and Breakfast basis whilst also offering the facility for private functions/receptions in the hotel and attractive grounds. It has recently undergone extensive refurbishments including, new electrics, upgrading of all the bedrooms with new furniture and the renewal of many of the en-suite facilities along with internal redecoration.

The property is approached through a stone pillared entrance with a sweeping driveway leading to the main entrance and parking. The property is set within approximately 2 acres of mature gardens and grounds which are mainly lawned and bordered by low stone walling, hedging and a small copse. There is an outside swimming pool and sun terrace. Lovely countryside views are enjoyed from many of the rooms and gardens of the property and especially from the large decked entertaining area to the rear which leads off from the lounge.

Although the property is currently trading as a hotel and has for some years, it would equally suit a large family home without much alteration to the current layout and is adjacent to another nearby private residence. It is understood that it was originally built in the 1880's and was used as a Rectory, a Headmasters House and a Gentlemen's residence before it was converted into a 10 bedroom hotel.

We like happy Tenants!

Symonds & Sampson offer Reasonable and Transparent fees to Tenants and Courtesy is our watchword

THERE has been some negative publicity about letting agencies and their fees from Shelter, the housing and homeless Charity recently. Whilst the reports are true for some Letting Agencies who we agree do charge extortionate up front fees to tenants it is not the whole story.

Renting is now the housing choice for millions of households and the competition for properties can be fierce. Yes we do charge upfront fees to tenants but this is to protect them and our landlords when going through the referencing process. Unfortunately it is not uncommon for some tenants to make offers on several properties at the same time. This is a risk for landlords so at Symonds & Sampson we endeavour to charge our tenants reasonable, competitive, and transparent fees which are clearly stated on our website under 'Renting Through Us'. The registration fee means we can remove the property from the market whilst a tenant is referenced.

Rachael James, Head of Lettings at Symonds & Sampson says "there is a call for tougher regulation of letting agents. We would agree wholeheartedly with this and we are already voluntarily Members of the Association of Residential Letting Agents as well as being regulated by the Royal Institution of Chartered Surveyors. We ensure all our letting staff are qualified or trained so that they can offer straight forward professional, step by step advice to tenants wishing to rent a property through the company.

"We also endeavour to make sure that tenants and landlords expectations are as compatible as possible. It is important to us that we make every ones lives as easy as possible without compromising on our duty to either landlord or tenant. Many tenants find property visits intrusive especially if they have been used to living in their own properties. We always try to give them plenty of notice when requesting an appointment and encourage them to make it their home whilst being mindful of the Landlord's instructions. Courtesy at all times is our watchword.

Fiat 500L MPW: The new model of the 500 family

Fiat presents the first official photos of the Fiat 500L MPW (called 'Living' in the rest of Europe), the new model that will have its world preview in July on the sixth anniversary of the 500 family. A development of the icon launched in 2007, the new car is for living life to the full, a car which reaches out directly to a diverse public, attentive to new features and looking for a balance of functionality and design, to make room for their many interests and intended uses without compromising on style.

The new Fiat has all the charm of the 500, the agility of a city-car, is as compact as a mid-size car, has the comfort and contents of a C-segment station wagon or saloon and the space and the versatility of an MPV. These are the ingredients of a new conception of the car, which is not based solely on technical specifications, but also on how it is experienced in life, to create a magic combination.

The 500L MPW is therefore the perfect marriage of effective use of space and unmistakable 'made in Fiat' design. With an additional third row of seats, the new car is the most compact '5 + 2-seater' MPV in its segment: it is 435 cm long, 178 cm wide and 167 cm high. What's more, despite being 20 cm shorter than a C-segment Station Wagon, the Fiat 500L MPW ensures exceptional values in terms of comfort, space and load capacity, as demonstrated by a volume of 638 litres.

The new model therefore assumes its position as the first car for the whole family which reaches out to all consumers, able to win over both men, thanks to its characteristics of functionality and efficiency, and women, due to its beauty, intelligence and style. And it's bound to please children as well: to their eyes it will be attractively spacious. In short, the Fiat 500L MPW is the superlative expression of Fiat's characteristic ingenuity in creating vehicles that make everyday life more simple, and a bit more fun as well.

At launch, the Fiat 500L MPW will be equipped with two petrol engines - 95 HP 1.4 16v and 105 HP 0.9 TwinAir Turbo - as well as two turbodiesels: 105 HP 1.6 MultiJet II and 85 HP 1.3 MultiJet II, the latter also with automatic transmission.

The range includes two trim levels (Pop Star and Lounge), both with 5 or 7 seats, 19 body colours (including 11 two-tone combinations) and 6 interior trims, 15 different types in terms of alloy wheels and hub caps: in total, no fewer than 282 combinations are possible. The new Fiat 500L MPW offers equipment worthy of a higher segment, as demonstrated by the new leather interiors, integrated navigation system and rear camera to assist with reversing manoeuvres.

The Fiat 500L MPW will be produced in the new Serbian factory at Kragujevac, while orders will open in July in Italy, to be extended progressively to the other countries of Europe.

Seaton travelled to Feniton in similar conditions to last season when they travelled only for the game to be called off on their arrival.

This season however a full game of cricket was played. Seaton captain Ben Morgan won the toss and asked the hosts to make first use of the damp wicket.

Seaton started well with opening bowlers Ben Libby and Phil Collins bowling economically with no reward.

Alex Hunt came on first change and combined with Mike Wheeler they took three wickets in quick succession.

A partnership for the 4th wicket grew until Phil Collins came back on to make the breakthrough.

Feniton carried on losing wickets at a steady rate and Joe Berry finished with three wickets whilst Hunt and Wheeler both claimed two. Collins claimed one whilst Feniton also suffered from two comedy run outs.

The reply saw Joe Berry out in the third over and Steve Pritchard in the seventh leaving Seaton on 25/2.

Seaton also lost wickets steadily throughout their innings and they thought they had thrown away another run chase until Alex Hunt and Phil Collins put on a partnership for the 8th wicket of 54 to take seaton over the finish line. Alex finished with 49 whilst Phil a quick fire 24.

Seaton captain Morgan said after the game: "This was a massive win after last weeks disappointing display last week.

"Feniton are a decent side and it is surprising to see them at the wrong end of the table.

"We need to look at our fielding after dropping another six catches which means we have dropped 13 catches in two weeks which cost us last week and could well have cost us this week too.

"We host Countess Wear on Saturday in the last round of matches so we look to improve again as in this league you can not afford to lose too many as everyone seems to be beating each other."

Ashburton 245-5 (C Pascoe 112, K Nicholls 56; B Whittington 3-58), Uplympe & Lyme Regis 209-5 (B Whittington 56no, Adam Caddy 60, J Whittington 53; D Singh 3-36). Uplympe (17 points) beat Ashburton (seven) by five wickets.

Uplozman 64 Howden Hawks 46; Signs South West 66 Sidmouth Toucans 43; Tip Top Tree 57; JD Tyres 64; Flamings 59; Otter Valley Dairy 41; Hi Q v Pixies - did not play.

AFTER the disappointment of Water Beabas withdrawal from the league there was another 'hiccup' when Pixies were unable to field a team due to injuries and holidays – they therefore had to forfeit their match against Hi Q.

It is all very tight at the top with just four points separating Flamings in top spot from Sidmouth Toucans in 7th place.

Flamings held on to the top place when they recorded a victory over Otter Valley Dairy by 59-41. With Karen Hall in good form at GS they gained the lead in the 3rd period and then dominated play in the 4th quarter despite good work from Rachel Tucker for the Dairy.

Signs South West continued their fine run of form when they met Sidmouth Toucans. SSW were 18-24 behind, but by half way they had moved into a 40-32 lead with Poppy Williams playing at her best.

Despite Helen Terry having a good game in attack for the Toucans they found themselves chasing the game and Sidmouth ended the game with a 66-43 defeat at the hands of Signs.

Uplozman, like SSW and Hi Q are just one point behind Flamings thanks to a win over Howden Hawks. Uplozman started the game chasing their opponents handicap lead, and by halfway were 39-41 behind.

Alice Quick was having a fine game for the Hawks whilst Zoe Beresford was playing well for Uplozman. The third quarter was a close with Uplozman finally edging in front at 47-45, before storming the final period to win by 64-46.

Game of the evening was between Tip Top Trees and JD Tyres. The game started with 3Ts 26-28 behind, but by quarter time they were 33-30 in front before extending this to 47-40 at halfway thanks to some great play from Laura Dare.

As is often the case in netball the third quarter proved pivotal with JD finding something extra to close the gap and start the final quarter 52-51 up. With Tanya Broom increasingly influential at GA the Tyres didn't look back and finished with a 64-57 victory.

Sidmouth tee up shot at Gleneagles glory

SIDMOUTH GC

A DREAM final at the 2014 Ryder Cup venue Gleneagles is up for grabs for amateur Carl Sheehan and his Sidmouth PGA professional Ben Thorn in Europe's biggest pro-am competition – The Lombard Trophy.

Sheehan teed up a chance to tread the fairways of the PGA Centenary course at the famous Scottish resort between September 3rd and 4th when he won his club qualifying competition with a nett score of 63.

He and Thorn now advance to the regional final at Bovey Castle on Friday (June 28th), where they will play one round of better-ball medal play with the chance to secure one of 16 spots available for the 36-hole grand final.

Lombard, the UK's largest asset finance provider and sponsor of the trophy, added their congratulations: "Well done on a great achievement. This is a highly prestigious event which provides a tremendous opportunity for those taking part. We are delighted to be associated with it."

The tournament attracts more than 50,000 competitors from across Great Britain and Ireland and is now its 29th competitive year, marking a welcome return as title sponsor for Lombard who originally sponsored the tournament from 1995 to 2006.

The PGA National Pro-Am Championship has a total prize fund of £80,000, with the winning professional at the grand final taking home a cheque for £12,000.

Carl Sheehan lives in Chard, Somerset. He plays off a handicap of 15.

Ben Thorn, 30, has been a professional at Sidmouth for two years.

SENIORS

IN THE third medal round of the Seniors' Masters Competition last Friday, the blustery conditions made scoring difficult for nearly all except for the last man to finish.

Geoff Hughes (16) completed a par equalling 70 nett to win the day, three strokes better than the earlier leader Keith Wilson (13) with a 73 nett.

Two players were one behind on 74 nett with third place on count back going to Alan Vincent (18).

Charles Whitbourn (28) the player to miss out, made up for this by winning the Warren Cup, played in conjunction with the medal, but open only to players of 21 handicap and over.

Keith Wilson scored the only two of the day.

For the main competition two players now share the lead, Alan Vincent and Roger Hill on 221, with Keith Wilson nearest the leaders on 228.

MAIN CLUB

IN dreadful weather the winner of the President's Prize was Nigel Pritchard with a very respectable 35 points.

Second place went to Dave Morgan with 32 points and third place to Richard Gibbons.

HONITON with Andy Wagner

MCLYDMONT CUP Rd1

THE Mcllydmont Cup, a 36 hole competition, was back to being played over two separate weekends. More recently it had been moved inside the 'Club Championship' 36 hole competition to encourage a larger field of players.

This was our second Medal round within the month which came as a surprise to quite a few members who aren't totally enamoured of the Medal format, but who innocently write their names up on the board with regard to the date of the game rather than the competition itself.

The day was grey and overcast until we arrived on the tee for our 8.21 tee off at which point a light but annoying drizzle proceeded to add to our discomfort.

We had to admit that by the time we reached our last hole we would have gladly settled for 'light but annoying' as it had grown to 'persistent and in your face'.

Still, we had reached our destination and the sanctuary of a warm and friendly clubhouse unlike the poor blighters behind us still wading through a sea of wet rough.

There was another feature to that soaking that seems to have worked in my favour though. Very few people had managed to adjust to the wet conditions and as a consequence Standard Scratch went up from 68 to 71 with the added advantage of me sneaking into the first round prizes.

The results so far are in Division 1 Mark Gillard nett 68 with a lowest gross of 73, Rob Willey nett 70 and Richard Reece nett 70.

In Division 2, Tim Welch shot a nett 67 followed by Ben Phillips nett 70 and eternal trier Andy Wagner third with a nett 71. Andy Harrison finished well down the field with a battling nett 82 which further confirmed his dislike of medals and a resolution to look closer at what he was putting his name up for. The concluding round will take place on the morning of June 30th.

TUESDAY MIXED

THE ever popular Mixed Texas Scramble was Tuesday's competition. The winning team with 61.1 Net was Jenny Reason, Stephanie and Bob Barnes and Jason Gosling.

Second place with 62.6 Nett were Lesley Farley, Jane and Mike Watts and Phil Wall; third with 63.1 were the team of Jan and John Dickinson and Janet and David Hughes.

Jackie Seager struck an excellent 8 iron on the Par 3 2nd hole to score a hole in one and then treated members to celebrate with her in the usual way - the wine was appreciated by all.

shots all, while the winning triple, Angie Mayhew, Linda Stone and Joan Miles won 27-9.

In a Division Four fixture in the Exeter & District Over 60s Triples League, Seaton 'A' extended their unbeaten run to seven matches when they beat Topham 'C' by 13 shots (46 - 33) at Topham on Wednesday, June 19th to go top of the division. The top triple was Ron Rowley, Keith Miles and Les Tooze.

On Friday, Sidmouth sent a mixed team to Seaton to play a friendly game. Seaton won 71-65 shots. The top rink was Jill Richards, John Bellamy, Marian Vessey and Jeremy Allison.

On Saturday, a Two Counties game was played against Cul-lompton. Seaton won over all. Top rink was Angie Mayhew, Norman Seaton, Sue Rutter and Les Tooze winning 28-12.

gymnastics honiton

A TEAM of acrobats from Honiton Gymnastics Club has just returned from the Geneva International Acro Cup clutching a haul of medals and as winners of the competition's overall team trophy.

The 15 gymnasts – aged between 10 and 21 – were competing at the annual international gymnastics competition. The talented youngsters brought home six gold medals, four silvers, two bronzes, and two fourth places.

The gymnasts included students from Honiton Community College, Offwell Primary School, The Kings School, The Woodroffe School in Lyme Regis, and Ivybridge Community College.

Six golds, four silvers & two bronzes

The club's accolades comprised two gold medals for the women's trio of Molly Thompson, Faye Miles and Charlotte Bower; two gold medals for Buster Titcher and Ashley Wallis in 11-16 men's pairs; a gold and a silver medal for Josh Jackson and Charlotte Bevis in 11-16 mixed pairs; a gold and a silver medal for Adam Fullick and Megan Jones in 11-16 mixed pairs; two silver medals for Kaisha Dessalines-Wright and Alice Hewstone in 11-16 girls' pairs; two bronze medals for Sean Kingston and Megan Cross in 11-16 mixed pairs; and two fourth places for Georgia Rooke and Natalya Pushkarev.

Gymnasts that competed in Geneva will be participating much closer to home in their next event – Honiton Gym Club's annual club competition on Saturday, July 6th.

SENIOR SECTION

IT WAS supposed to be a fine, dry day but instead the seniors played their Stableford under drizzle and wind on slow greens.

It did not affect some scores as Angus Falconer recorded a creditable 40 points to head Division One, edging out Keith Lloyd on countback. Chris Street scored 38 (with two twos) with John Dickinson in fourth spot. Stan Squire took the last prize with a 36.

Brian Morrison is enjoying his purple patch and he won Division Two with 38 points, just beating vice-captain Bill Eaton on the same score.

Robert Canterbury, Ashley Murray and Alex Lynn all scored 36, only separated on countback. Ken Beake had the pleasure of presenting his trophy and other prizes to the top players in the seniors winter eclectic competition, which was won by Andy Sharland.

Someone said something about ITMA. If you do not know what it means you are not old enough to play in the seniors.

ANDY HARRISON

THE Club would like to pay their respects to Andy Harrison who passed away after a sudden heart attack on Friday evening.

An enthusiastic, if a little erratic, golfer Andy had made a name for himself by generously and very ably captaining the B Team for a couple of seasons, winning praise from all who played in those matches.

As a consequence his name regularly cropped up with the committee as the type of man who could probably lead the club at some time if he was ready to accept. Andy loved all sports, starting as a cricketer rugby prop (or so he told me) and Honiton Golf Club's short lived cricket society will never forget him taking four wickets in four balls (which I christened at the time 'a Harrison' in this paper and which still stands today as the term for this exceptional feat).

His name is on the clubhouse boards as a Phillips Cup Match Play Winner and he always seemed to keep his handicap at 'competitive' proportions despite trying his damndest to 'get better'!

Funeral arrangements will be posted on the board but in his departure his family and the club have lost an enthusiastic member and an all round bloody good bloke.

LADIES SECTION

CONGRATULATIONS this week go to Lesley Oxenham, the worthy winner of The Bowerman Cup, with a grand score of 36 Stableford points, on c/b from runner-up Jan Dickinson.

In the monthly stableford Silver Division, June Hodge came out on top with 38 points, while Elizabeth Ward was 2nd with 34 points, and Diana Gee a close 3rd with 33 points.

Bronze 1 Division was won by Lesley Oxenham with 36 points, with Jan Dickinson in 2nd place also on 36 points; 3rd place went to Dot Grove with 35 points and 4th to Pam Manning with 34 points.

The Nine Hole Competition winner was Maureen Tol-lechache who scored 15 points.

Somers is Seasiders' new manager

SEATON Town have appointed Keith Somers as first team manager to replace Josh Stunell, who has stood down after four years in the job due to family commitments.

Somers, 47, managed Colyton for five seasons, taking them up into Devon and Exeter Division One and to the final of the Bill Slee Cup in his last year.

Having played youth and adult football for 30 years, Somers took a break for management last season and took the opportunity of watching a lot of local football.

He told Pulman's Sport: "I found it a bit frustrating and have been bitten by the bug again."

"Seaton approached me along with a number of other clubs but Seaton seemed the most attractive."

Asked how he viewed the Seaton job, Somers replied: "Exciting and

By Philip Evans

philip@pemediaco.uk

challenging and hopefully very rewarding.

"They have a very, very young squad who are incredibly enthusiastic and keen and are desperate to do well. When I took Colyton into Division One I did not think that two years later I would be managing Seaton."

Somers is also connected with the Exeter City Academy and runs the Colyton division centre.

Stunell will maintain his connection with local football by continuing as the manager of the Devon & Exeter pick-of-the-league side.

Lifelong Seaton player Dave Hales has been appointed manager of Seaton Reserves.

Seaton will begin pre-season training at the ground on Tuesday, July 9th (6 pm).

KEITH SOMERS: relishing the challenge at Seaton Town who finished fifth last year in the Devon & Exeter Premier division.

■ GREAT EFFORT: Students from the Seaton-based Matt Fiddes Martial Arts School recently provided a clean sweep of grading passes. The students in this class train every Wednesday at the Seaton Primary School under Vicky and Giles Richards who has recently been entered into the martial arts hall of fame and was awarded UK instructor of the year and UK school owner of the year 12. Giles Richards said: "I am very proud of all the students, the grading was an hour long and they had to show their, kicks, punches, drills, fitness test, pad work sparring and self defence."
